Message from the President

First let me thank everyone who assisted with our specialty shows in Augusta and the temperament test. Whether you were entered, assisted with show preparation, trophy pledges – whatever – we thank you and appreciate your efforts. Special thanks to Ren and Morgan Lewis – co show chairs.

And a special thanks to the Augusta GSDC for all of their hard work. Everyone who has helped set up rings and take them down know what a relief it was for that to be done by their very small hard-working club. And they provided 90% of the manpower for the temperament test.

At our upcoming June meeting, we will be electing our officers for next year and discussing our judges slate for 2020. And the Awards Banquet is just around the corner so start pulling your information together if you earned titles since last July 1.

LET THE BRAGGING BEGIN....

I'm so proud of our club - specialty shows take a village and we had a powerful village in Augusta. Thank you everyone!!!!

My brag is different. I have visited several clubs including Hawaii and San Diego to share with them the activities and direction of the "AKC Dog Detection Task Force" which I chair. For more information go to www.AKC Dog Detection Task Force Conference.

WE HAD MAJORS AND THEY HELD!! It was HOT in Augusta last weekend so top priority was staying hydrated and keeping dogs cool. The judges were awesome, ring stewards kept things moving, volunteers worked hard, and the handlers stayed busy moving some absolutely beautiful dogs around the ring!!

Our team worked tirelessly to pull off these wonderful shows! It was great catching up with old friends and spending time with new friends. Thanks to everyone that supported the shows with entries, the volunteers, and those that made donations.

Very pleased to announced that CH Charbar's Elke (Lucy) earned her Rally Novice title in Augusta - 3 trials 3 qualifying scores. And on Sunday earned her temperament certification that completes her requirements for Dual Award Excellent from the parent club. Champion, performance title, TC and OFA H & E.

And not to let his little sister out do him - Charbar's Elton (Reggie) earned his temperament certification.

MEMBER BRAGS

There are no words to express our gratitude to Judges Christi Halliday, Sheree Moses, Karin Wagner, and LaMar Frederick. GCH CH Ranita's Song of The South PT TC showed that she still has what it takes in the conformation ring after a two year break. She was awarded Select by Judges Christi Halliday and Karin Wagner, and BOS by Judges Sheree Moses and LaMar Frederick last weekend in Augusta. She was also BOBOH all four shows. Zip brought home 14 points toward her Bronze and 20 OH points in just four shows!! Zip is owned & loved by us and Anita Clouse. (breeder/co-owner).

Ren & Morgan Lewis

Maverick added a couple of titles to the end of his name in May. He is now Matchmaker's Top Gun V Heinerburg BCAT TC.

Maverick finished his BCAT (Fast CAT) in Perry running 23.5 mph, and had a blast! In Augusta last weekend he easily passed the requirements for the TC.

We are excited to see what the future holds for this happy, confident, handsome youngster.
